4. Sankalp & Its Importance

Sankalp is very important while conducting Puja. It's a determined inclination to do something. Ahead of undertaking any form of puja the people who are undertaking the puja take a sankalp. When the pundit performs the sankalp, it's important to have handy information in the form of a Sankalp information sheet.

The Sankalp Information Sheet is a document containing essential details required during sankalp while performing a puja, such as the Hindu year, month, tithi, day, date, country, city, participant's name, and gotra which the participants have to chant during the sankalp as per the panditji's instruction.

You can easily get these details from DevbhumiDevasthanams website's punchang section by selecting the date when you will be performing the Puja and the city where you'll conduct the Puja. Alternatively, you can refer to other punchangs available on the internet for the same information.

During Sankalp Required information

The participants should keep the following information ready, which the participants should chant during the pooja during Sankalpa as per Pandit ji instructions.

5. Muharat & Its Importance

Mahurat plays a very important role. Doing anything during an auspicious mahurat yields positive results, so through digital puja, you can perform rituals according to your convenience without depending on a pandit.

Although the entire month of Sawan is considered special for Rudrabhishek, all Mondays, Sawan Shivratri, and Nag Panchami are particularly significant. It is believed that performing Rudrabhishek on these special days fulfills not just one but 18 types of desires and removes all kinds of sufferings from your life.

6. How to login

Whenever you are performing Puja, just login to your user ID at www.devbhumidevasthamans.com and follow the dashboard accordingly.
